

Mr Anestis Trypitsidis (MEng | MSc) is an Urban & Regional Planning Engineer. Positions: (i) GIS Project Manager, EPSILON International SA Greece (2012+): responsible of several GIS projects carried out at National & International level 3D-Aerodromes, SEIS, Smart-Islands, ArcFUEL, eENVplus, c-Space, GETIM, (ii) GIS specialist, EPSILON International SA Greece (2012): as technical consultant in the implementation of GIS projects. Expertise: Proposal preparation & writing, proposal submissions, spatial databases, database design, spatial analysis, GIS, 3D-Modeling, cartography, urban planning, regional development, OGC, INSPIRE. Academics: Urban Planning & Regional Development Degree, University of Thessaly (UTH, MEng, 2010), MSc in Geoinformatics - Applied Geography and Spatial Planning, Department of Geography, Harokopio University of Athens. Experience: (i) Technical: MS Office Project 2010, Redmine, GIS & WebGIS tools (ESRI ArcGIS Desktop 10.x, ArcGIS Server 10.x), RDBMS (MySQL, SQLyog, Postgre/PostGIS), INSPIRE editor s/w tools (INSPIRE metadata editor, GeoNetwork, Publisher), Programming (small experience in Visual Basic), (ii) Academic: urban and regional planning using GIS, spatial data collection and tracking, spatial databases, urban design and planning, rural planning and environment, urban and spatial policy, operational planning, strategic planning, GIS, spatial planning and analysis, cartography, Network Analysis, Regression models.