

Ms Dimitra Mina was born in 1985 in Athens, Greece. Education: She holds a Rural and Surveying Engineering Degree from National Technical University of Athens (NTUA, Dipl-Ing., 2009) and a post graduate MSc. Degree in Geoinformatics from NTUA (2011). Additional Training: ESRI technologies - ArcGIS tools (Marathon Data Systems, Athens, 2008-2009), TOPSA Program "Engineering Employment in Innovative Internet Technologies" aimed at training on Web GIS technologies (Education & Training Institute for TEE (Technical Chamber of Greece) members, Athens, 2014). Expertise: EU-wide and international projects & business enlargement: Spatial Analysis and Geographical Information Systems, Spatial Databases, Regional Planning and Regional Development, Urban Planning, Environmental Planning, Risk and Impact Assessments. Experience: Full spectrum of ESRI technologies and tools (ESRI-ArcGIS, OpenStreetMap-JOSM), RDBMS (MySQL, Postgre/PostGIS), Spatial data collection and tracking, Spatial Databases, Rural-Urban- and Regional Planning and Analysis via GIS, Urban and Spatial Policy, Cartography, Network Analysis, and integrated enviro-systems via GeoInformatics technologies. Position: Epsilon International SA, International Geosciences Account Manager; she is currently in charge of international projects exploration for the East European and the NIS/CIS and Asia Regions, responsible for EOIs (Expressions of Interest) Submissions and other EU – WB – ADB – UNDP funded Proposal Submissions.